

SYNOPSIS

This investigation was initiated by the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC), Office of Investigations (OI), Region I, on August 27, 1997, to determine whether a [REDACTED] at the Salem Generating Station, Unit 2, Public Service Electric and Gas Company (PSE&G), had been discriminated against (fired on [REDACTED]), as a result of raising concerns regarding Containment temperature monitoring methodologies.

Based on the evidence developed during this investigation, OI could not substantiate that the [REDACTED] had been fired from PSE&G as a result of raising concerns regarding Containment temperature monitoring methodologies. 7c
